

What has come out of this crisis that has been good?

People have been much less angry at each other.

More time with family spending time with family

A chance to just stop and breathe. Also its a good time to be with family

a long break

watching all the tv shows that I missed my sister came home, and i hadn't seen her in 8 months!

It's been a nice chance to relax

Catching up on sleep

What has come out of this crisis that has been good?

Catch up on sleep

Self reflection and alone time with God

The re-industrialization of America and less dependence on foreign production

Time to relax and build relationships at home with parents.

more time for creativity

Less pollution

Getting to realign ourselves with God and His will for our life.

sleep

learn all that we have taken for granted such as friends

What has come out of this crisis that has been good?

A lot of family time and time for self reflection

Life slowed down and we've had rest

Being able to slow down and relax

There is unity within the nation that is growing finding resourceful alternatives to toilet paper

A good thing that came out of this crisis is that we get to stay home and take a break from constantly running around and working

Family time

Understanding the things we should be grateful for rather than taking them for granted

no traffic

What has come out of this crisis that has been good?

People are looking to God in this crisis :)

Relxing and reflecting

Gaining more insights about the world.

Relaxation

Who is playing the guitar

