

Dear BCS Seniors,

We are so excited to welcome you back to campus, even if it is just to drive across campus and pick up your cap and gown. Please find the instruction below for participating in this event. Please know that these rules will be strictly enforced. Tomorrow you will receive an additional email to register for Baccalaureate. Again, we are very excited to see you tomorrow on campus at 2:00pm.

Here are the instructions:

Senior Instructions for Cap and Gown Pick Up

- Please do not enter the campus before 1:50.
- Upon entering campus, you will be directed to the drive thru queue for picking up your cap and gown
- Please do not park in any campus parking spot before or after picking up your cap and gown
- Do not exit your car at any time while on campus
- As you approach the overhang on the west side of building “A”, please roll your window down to receive instructions
- Once your window is rolled down please put on your face covering
- As you drive under the overhang you will be handed your cap and gown and a bag of gifts through your open window (all have been sterilized)
- Do not attempt to make physical contact with anyone outside of your vehicle
- After receiving your cap and gown you will be directed to drive across campus where faculty will be waiting to cheer for and greet you.
- Again, do not park on campus or attempt to exit your vehicle at any time.
- After you have picked up your cap and gown and driven across campus please exit the campus.

If you have any of the following symptoms, please do not come to campus. Other arrangements will be made to get you your cap and gown. Here are the symptoms:

- Cough
- Shortness of breath or difficulty breathing
- Chills
- Repeated shaking with chills
- Muscle pain
- Headache
- Sore throat
- Loss of taste or smell
- Diarrhea

- Feeling feverish or a measured temperature greater than or equal to 100.0 degrees Fahrenheit

Again, we are excited to see you tomorrow. I know these are a lot of rules but these are the guidelines we have been given in order to host this event. Just know we are excited to begin the graduation process with you.

Blessings and see you tomorrow.

Jay Burcham
